Thomas and Percy attend a fall festival

“Hey Percy” said Thomas “Did you hear that school is having a fall festival on Saturday?”

“What is a fall festival?” asked Percy.

“A fall festival is an event at school where they have different games and snacks” said Thomas. “That sounds fun! Let’s go” replied Percy.

“Wow there are so many activities”. Said Thomas
I want to do bobbing for apples first said Percy.

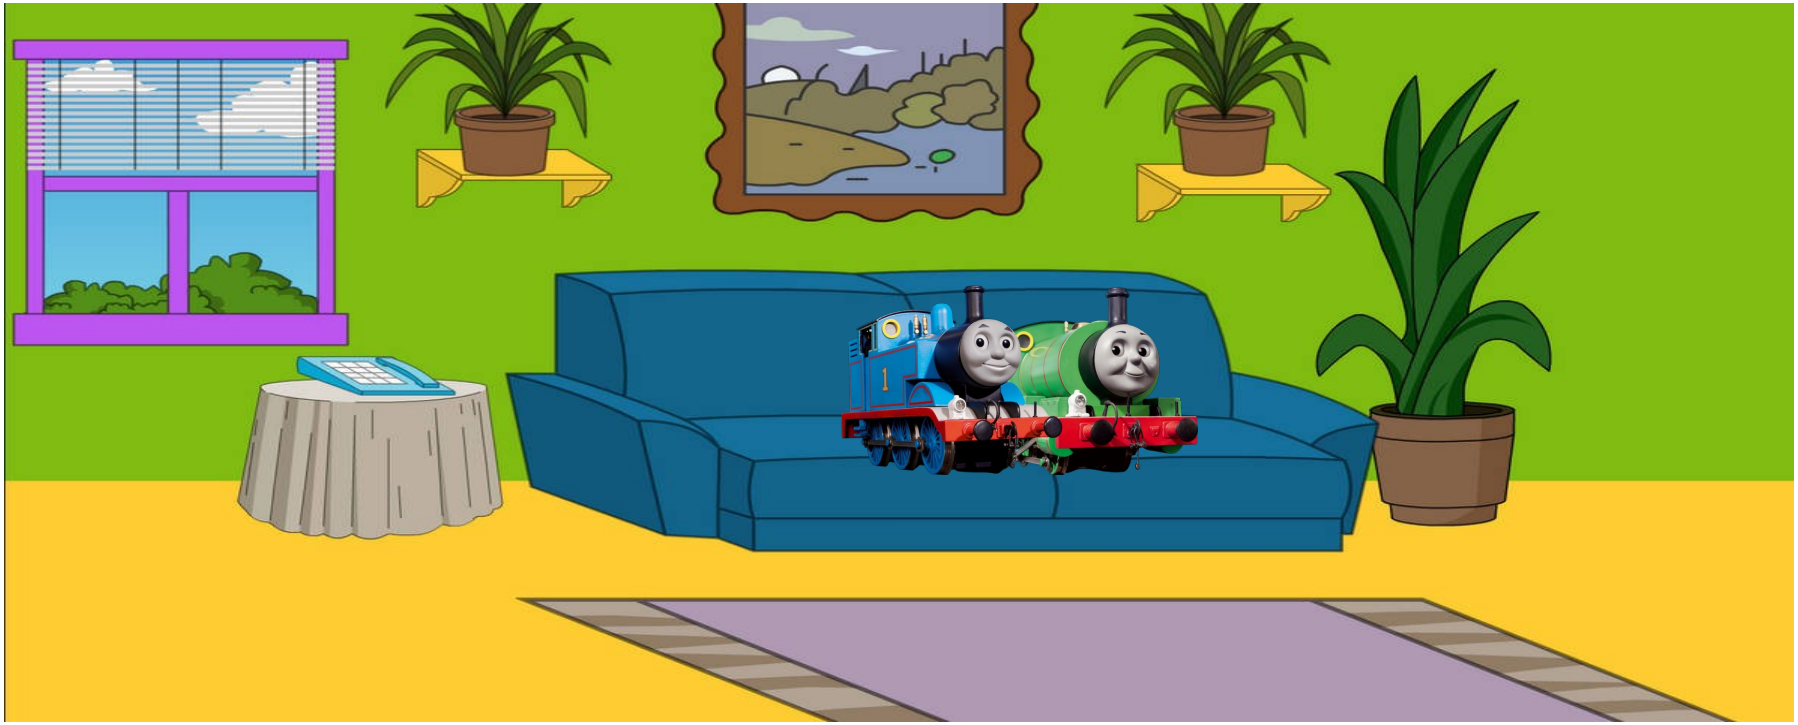
“Gosh this is harder than it looks” said Thomas

Then the friends decided to play in the leaves.

“Gosh this is fun” said Percy.

Then the boys decided to play leaves.

They enjoyed playing in the leaves but were very tired when it started to get dark outside.

So the trains decided to go to Thomas’s house.


“Well it was really fun going to the fall festival” said Percy. “Yeah, but I’m ready to go to bed!” said Thomas.
